

Two Amazing Events, One Incredible Cause

FRIDAY
April 4, 2025

SATURDAY
April 5, 2025

UCP of Central Florida will be hosting their 32nd Annual Gala and Annual Casino Royale Poker Tournament fundraisers April 4 and 5, 2025. We are thrilled to welcome back celebrity co-hosts Cheryl Hines, RJ Mitte and Rachael Harris.

These events are the perfect opportunity to make a direct impact in the lives of children and families in Central Florida, while representing your brand in front of nearly 1,000 local business leaders.

Each year we dedicate awards to those we wish to recognize for their efforts in inspiring our mission in others. The meaning behind UCP Jack Holloway Star of Gratitude, Jackie Bailes Legacy and Champion for Children's Awards is explained below.

Champion for Children Award

The Champion for Children Award recognizes Public Servants, Local Business, or Community leaders who have supported UCP through dedicating their time, sharing their influence or counsel, and resources in helping UCP of Central Florida provide services and make the most impact with the children we serve in our Community.

Jackie Bailes Legacy Award

Jackie Bailes' goal was to provide all of the children of UCP with the best educational and life environment possible. Her passion was being with the children we serve. The Jackie Bailes Legacy Award recognizes a special person or individuals who have been instrumental in keeping Jackie Bailes' dream alive with a strong commitment and dedication to UCP's mission, through their support with time, talent, and treasure.

Jack Holloway Star of Gratitude Award

Jack Holloway was a business owner and dedicated philanthropist here in Central Florida. This award recognizes business owners and leaders who have dedicated their business resources on a philanthropic level help make UCP of Central Florida's mission possible.

ABOUT THE GALA

UCP's Annual Gala is one of Orlando's most star-studded fundraisers. For more than 30 years, we have hosted some of Central Florida's most influential business and community leaders, as well as national and internationally acclaimed celebrities. The event puts guests at the forefront of advocacy and elegance. UCP's Gala raises hundreds of thousands of dollars annually to help provide individualized support, education, and therapy services to thousands of Central Florida's children, including adolescent mothers and their babies, and children overcoming a variety of disabilities or developmental delays.

UCP's Gala is an evening to advocate, fundraise, and celebrate the potential of the future leaders of our community who are overcoming some of life's most difficult challenges. Our event sponsorships provide a perfect opportunity for companies to showcase their charitable impact while being featured amongst Central Florida's most successful businesses.

EMPOWERING CHILDREN FOR 70 YEARS

Since 1955, UCP of Central Florida has been transforming lives through hope, education, and inclusion. From a small program for children with cerebral palsy to a thriving organization supporting thousands of children with disabilities, our mission remains strong: to empower children and families to unlock their full potential.

Join us as we commemorate seven decades of life-changing impact, share our milestones, and look forward to continuing this incredible journey.
