UCP OF CENTRAL FLORIDA RECOMMENDED FOR NATIONAL ACCREDITATION

A thorough assessment of UCP of Central Florida's Charter Schools earns prestigious recognition.

Orlando, Fla. (September 21, 2016) – UCP of Central Florida, a tuition-free public charter school and pediatric therapy center, has been recommended to receive accreditation from the AdvancED/SACS Accreditation Commission. The recommendation was determined by a 9 person external evaluation team from across the nation. After a thorough assessment of UCP of Central Florida's services, curriculum, and 7 campuses, the evaluation team determined that UCP of Central Florida aligns with the merit required for accreditation. AdvancED is a non-profit organization that assesses PreK--12th grade schools and school systems to measure quality programs, relationships and results. UCP Charter Schools are thrilled to join this prestigious groups of schools committed to excellence for all learners.

UCP of Central Florida specializes in maximizing student potential for children of all abilities by integrating various learning styles. To begin enrollment, visit www.ucpcf.org or call (407) 852-3300.
